

Tubetti di medicinali nella maglia di Tom Simpson

Ucciso dalla droga?

Il corridore ha fatto uso di prodotti per lenire il dolore? - E' in corso l'inchiesta giudiziaria dopo il rifiuto dei medici a firmare i permessi per l'inumazione - I commenti della stampa - Le testimonianze del meccanico dei belgi e della moglie di Pingeon - Anche Goddet interrogato dalla polizia

Perché è stato fatto ripartire?

SETE, 14. La salma di Tom Simpson riposa nell'obitorio dell'ospedale di Avignone dove è giunto la moglie dello scomparso. La signora Ellen si trovava in Corsica, a Pianottoli, la località scelta da Simpson per la costruzione della nuova casa che avrebbe dovuto abitare con la famiglia alla conclusione del Tour. Simpson aveva fatto il feticcio di lasciare l'abitazione di Gand, e aveva detto alla consorte: «La nuova casa sarà finita verso il 10-12 luglio: procedi tu per le cose che mancano, procedi con il tuo gusto, con le tue scelte: io ti raggiungerò il 21 luglio...».

parlo sinceramente dell'obbligo di ottenere il massimo rendimento, e ciò con ogni mezzo. Tali concezioni, ammettete il povero Tom, non possono evidentemente essere che all'uso di stupefacenti. La maledizione della droga pesa da sempre sul ciclismo e sul Tour. È storia recente il corridore danese morto per «colpo di sole» durante l'Olimpiade di Roma, sono storia recente le «cortecce» di Jean Maljean e Ferdj Kubler sulle stesse strade che rampe del Ventoux, è di oggi la notizia che «il tribunale di Bordeaux ha ordinato un supplemento di indagini in merito al caso di doping accaduto nel corso del Giro di Francia dello scorso anno e riguardante il corridore Gilbert Bellone». È pure di ieri la notizia che il medico che doveva operare il nostro Mugnaini (feritosi in una caduta causata da un cane che gli ha attraversato il collo) prima di farlo ha convocato un giornalista italiano e lo ha pregato di rivelargli «il genere di eccitanti che sono stati presi dal corridore». «Io ha spiegato il medico - non accuso Mugnaini, sia chiaro, ma poiché debbo procedere all'analisi del corridore non è in grado di dirvi: se il corridore ha assunto diversamente non potrà addossare il fatto di doping. L'interdizione».

fu lo comparsi della tragedia? E perché hanno tacuto, e continuano a tacere, tanti dirigenti e tanti autorevoli colleghi che alla lotta contro l'oblio fatto ai corridori professionisti a ottenere il massimo rendimento a ogni costo? denunciato dal povero Simpson potrebbero dare un contributo decisivo? La stampa inglese sottolinea le grandi affermazioni di Simpson ed esalta la sua figura di corridore generoso, e di buona classe. Fra l'altro i giornali ricordano le ultime parole di Simpson, gridate al suo direttore tecnico dopo la prima caduta sul Ventoux: «Mi faccia risalire in sella». L'hanno fatto risalire, perché il ciclismo professionistico oggi è un moloch crudele per il quale conta solo chi sa, chi può vincere. Se come vuole lo sport vero per il quale importante è «stareggiare con lealtà e con onesto cuore» e non «vincere ad ogni costo», Tom Simpson fosse stato ferito forse sarebbe ancora vivo. In serata, il dipartimento della polizia di Marsiglia, ha disposto la perquisizione delle ammiraglie che seguono il Tour per conto della Gran Bretagna e del Belgio. Sono stati posti sotto controllo anche gli alberghi che ospitano il personale tecnico delle due squadre. Si vuole andare in fondo al dramma di Mont Ventoux, si vogliono conoscere le cause della morte di Tom Simpson.
